Rules and Regulations:

By submitting your film, you affirm that this film was made by you and that that you are the sole proprietor and that you have sole rights to the film. You must also have permission from all participants in your film. You agree that your film may be published and broadcast by the DifferenceDiaries.org or Children of Difference Foundation in any way or form it deems appropriate to carry out its mission of education, outreach, and community building.

The following is an explanation of rules and regulations governing the submission of a short film (hereinafter called the “film”) to the Children of Difference Foundation Project called Living With Difference Short Film Competition (hereinafter called “LWD”).

By agreeing to the terms and conditions of the Application, the Description Document, and these rules and Regulations, the person submitting the film (hereinafter called the “Applicant”) acknowledges that he or she has obtained consent from any and all owners, creators, writers, Producers and/or other authorized representatives of the Film whose consent is required to submit the Film to LWD , and has read and understood the submission rules and regulations set forth below:

- I. It is the sole responsibility of the Applicant to secure authorization and permission from right owner(s) of any and all copyrighted or trademarked content or materials included within the Film. LWD expressly disavows any responsibility for, and will not be held responsible for any unauthorized inclusion of any copyrighted or trademarked content or materials within or relating to the Film, including any content or materials that are or may become the basis for third party claims for infringement. In the even that any claim, dispute, action or proceedings shall be brought or asserted by any person, entity that alleges the Film makes unauthorized or unlawful use of any copyrighted or trademarked content or materials, Applicants shall fully indemnify and defend LWD and the Children of Difference Foundation and each of their representatives and affiliates from any liability in connection therewith and from any fees and expenses including but not limited to attorneys’ fees that any of them may incur in connection therewith.

- II. It is the sole responsibility of the Applicant to clear all content of the Film from any and all actual or potential legal claims and issues, including, without limitation, claims based upon theories of libel, defamation, invasion of privacy, violation of rights of publicity, theft of trade secrets, breach of confidence, breach of confidential relationship, and breach of express or implied contract (“Third Party Claim(s)”). LWD expressly disavows any responsibility for, and will not be held responsible for, any unauthorized inclusion of any content or materials within or relating to the submitted Film that are or may be the basis for any Third Party Claims based upon any of the foregoing legal theories or others. In the event that any Third Party Claim(s) shall be asserted by any person or entity, Applicant shall fully indemnify and defend LWD, the competition, and each of their representatives and affiliates from any liability in connection therewith and from any and all fees and expenses, including but not limited to attorneys’ fees, that each of any of them may incur in connection therewith.

If Your Work is Selected for Use or Awards:

If your work is selected, you must fulfill the following requirements by the date(s) designated by the Festival:

Execute a release agreement wherein you (i) accept responsibility for obtaining any and all clearances necessary for your film to be exhibited by the Children of Difference Foundation (dba Difference Diaries.org); (ii) warrant that you have the rights necessary to exhibit your film publicly in all formats; and (iii) indemnify and hold harmless The children of Difference foundation and its projects, its affiliates, and subsidiaries and any of their respective directors, officers, employees, and representatives against any claim arising out of exhibition or dissemination of your film.

I have read, understood, and agree to the above terms and conditions for the 2015 living with difference short film competition.
